A SHOOTING SCRAPE.

White Youth is Knocked Down by a Burly Negro in Chelsea, and Responds by Shooting and Dangerously Wounding his Assailant.

On Sunday afternoon, near the corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets, a negro named Henry Dockery was severely shot by a white youth aged nineteen years and named Avery A. Slaughter. On Sunday young Slaughter ordered a brother of Dockery out of his facause. A boy may have tied an oyster-can ordered a brother of Dockery out of his fator its tail, or may have beaten it crueily. him out. Harry Dockery, the brother, who Only one in the world—the genuine Dr.

When they can buy Marburg Bros. have been hunting around for something to eat. Bad treatment and hunger put men, as well as dogs, in bad humor, and make them across the street and began cursing young scross the street and began cursing young Slaughter, and threatened to strike him. About this time Mr. W. A. J. Slaughter, another brother, came upon the scene, and restored peace by telling his younger brother to go inside the house, which he did. Later in the afternoon, about half-past seven o'clock, while young Slaughter was on his way to church, in company with Willie Gwynne, who had returned to his father's house for a handkerchief, he was met by Dockery at the corner of Fifth and Sycamore streets, who, after asking him why he had ordered his brother from his father's yard, struck him a powerful blow in the face, knocking him down, and cutting a severe gash over his right eye and lip. Young Slaughter arose, and drawing an old derringer pistol, which he had found on his brother's bureau, fired at Dockery, who was in the act of drawing either a pistol or knife from his pocket. The bail struck the negro in the right side, and ranged up into his lung, inflicting what the loctors say is a mortal wound. Slaughter ran back a few steps when he saw the negro trying to get something out of his pocket. Dockery still advanced on him, at the same ime trying to get something out of his pocket. Slaughter then raised his old derringer as if to shoot again. The negro seeing this, ran across the street and was seen to go into a shanty. Last night the negro Dockery rest-ed easy, and appeared to be in a state of re-Young Slaughter has not as yet been arrested. He is secreted in the city, but will deliver himself up as soon as the result of the negro's wound is positively known.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Interesting Coremonies at the Dedieation of the Italian Catholic Church, on Georgia Street, Last Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon a very large as semblage of people appeared at the new Catholic church (St. Joseph's) erected on Georgia street by the Italians resident of the city. The Catholic clergy of the city delivered the address, which was of the usual character, most interesting and appropriate. The usual cere-monies were indulged in, and some very fine music was rendered. The ladies and gentlemen comprising the choir were as follows: Sopranos, Misses Mary Smith, Sallie Wood-ward, Mary E. Horan; altos, Misses Emma Peck, Maria Solari; tenor, Mr. B. O. Hollen-berg; bass, Mr. W. F. Boyle. Prof. Winkler presided, and excellently well did he do his work. The church is quite ornamenta substantial. It is a credit to Italian fellow-citizens, who have been working earnestly and long to secure a church for their own use. The church will be under charge of Rev. Fathe Luisella, a gentleman of recognized ability worth and zeal. Quite a number of citizen of other nationalities, assisted their Italian friends by liberal subscriptions toward the rection of the building. The first baptism n St. Joseph's church was solemnized yester day afternoon at four o'clock, the infant son of Mr. D. Canale being the subject, to which the name of Antonio Joseph was given. Mr. A. Vaccaro was godfather and Mrs. Maria Solari godmother. The event was witnessed by a large congregation. The new church is rapidly approaching completion, for which a fine, loud toned bell is now on the way from Cincinnati, and will be hung in time to announce services next Sunday. ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Humboldt (Tenn.) People's Journal, 22d Our place was thrown into a state of excitement Wednesday evening, about one o'clock, by the announcement of Mr. William Hart rying four miles south of here, that his son Jim had been shot through the head that morning, and that he supposed some unknown parties had done the deed. To add to the mystery, he [Jim] was at a place on 20. The Peri's gem. This superb figure culty with some parties a few weeks ago, and their general health. THE GLORIOUS FOURTH

The Fourth-of-July Celebration in this City-The Extensive Preparations new Making.

The Fourth-of-July fireworks arrived in the city yesterday, packed in a score of huge boxes. The celebration will be of a most interesting character, one which will attract thousands of people to our city. The parade of the military companies, and the turnout of the fire brigade during the day, will add no little to the attractions. Every citizen who is able so to do, should by all means subscribe liberally. Too many have held back and bave given excuses for not subscribing, either liberally or otherwise, although they were amply able to do so.
